Shopping & Dining

Shopping & Dining

Shopping in Fort Erie reflects the Town's rich past, offering several cozy communities rolled into one. Over the past 100 years, five distinct shopping districts have emerged.

Ridgeway

Ridgeway's small town charm makes it a destination of choice for visitors to Niagara. With old-fashioned storefronts and customer service, Ridgeway offers a traditional main street with a unique mix of retail shops. www.ridgewayont.ca

Stevensville

Stevensville was settled in the 1700s by Loyalists and was long known for its mills (lumber and flour) and railway. Today, this rural centre is home to garden centres, specialty shops and an outdoor zoo.

Bridgeburg

The Bridgeburg Station Business Improvement Area (BIA) was the Town's original downtown and thrived as a result of the construction of the International Railway. Banking, small retailers, media, government and professional services exist in this historic community which is a "stone's throw" from the Niagara River. 905-871-4938 or www.bridgeburg-bia.ca

Crystal Beach

This emerging shopping district rests on the edge of Crystal and Bay Beaches, just across from the site of the famed Crystal Beach Amusement Park). Antique shops and a sprinkling of art stores are tucked away in this sunny enclave, which in recent years has enjoyed a renaissance.

Garrison Road

The Garrison, as locals like to refer to it, is the Town's major artery off the Peace Bridge. This commercial centre features major grocery stores, pharmacies, large consumer goods retailers, destination shops, restaurants and service stations. Anchoring "The Garrison," near the Peace Bridge on Central Avenue, is the Peace Bridge Day Free.

The Fort Erie Race Track, located at 230 Catherine Street, Fort Erie, is the grand host to many events and festivities during the summer months.
